

OTTAWA JEWISH BULLETIN & REVIEW

We, the Rabbis of Ottawa, proclaim our support of the United Jewish Appeal – Or Yehuda (Project Renewal) Campaign in the prophetic tradition of social justice – to banish the blight of poverty from our people in the Land of Israel and to build our own Jewish community on sacred and firm foundations. We are one.

Getting Ready for the Walkathon-Jogathon-Bikeathon on May 27

Irving Taylor, Chairman of Participation for the Big Event on Sunday morning, May 27, meets with leaders of some of the youth groups who are promoting the Family Walkathon - Jogathon - Bikeathon. Proceeds will go towards Or Yehuda, the development town linked with Ottawa in Project Renewal. Seated with him, left to right, are Larry Szpirglas, Chick Taylor and Dr. Garry Viner. Standing: Bernie Farber, Debbie Viner, Jordana Halperin, Elliot Berman, Szrul Gencher and Sam Asher.

Goldberg Foundation Created

The Officers and Directors of the Ottawa Jewish Community Endowment and Bequest Foundation welcome the establishment of the George and Mary Goldberg Endowment Fund on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary and George's 25th birthday.

George Goldberg arrived in Ottawa from England in 1925 and hoped to make a career in music as a violinist. Through his music he met Mary Eskin, a member of an Ottawa pioneer family, who became his accompanist and in 1929, his wife.

George and Mary operated The Goldberg Beauty Salon on Rideau Street for many years and worked together as a successful team.

George is a member of Beth Shalom Synagogue and B'nai B'rith No. 885. Mary is most involved in Hadassah. They have two children, a son Ronnie in the Public Service Commission, and a daughter Beverly Gershkovitch, a speech therapist at the Ottawa Children's Hospital. They have five grandchildren.

The George and Mary Goldberg Endowment Fund is an open-ended Fund which may be added to at any time. The capital will be invested and only the interest used each year for charitable and educational purposes. Anyone wishing to add to the Fund may do so by sending a contribution to the Ottawa Jewish Community Endowment and Bequest Foundation at 151 Chapel Street. Contributions are tax deductible.

OTTAWA TO HOST FIRST NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SOVIET ANTI-SEMITISM

sponsored by B'nai B'rith and the Canadian Committee for Soviet Jewry
March 28 - 29 Chateau Laurier, Ottawa

Soviet Antisemitic Propaganda

Evidence from books, press and radio
Institute of Jewish Affairs 1978

If it (the Torah) is considered from the standpoint of modern civilisation and communist morality, it proves to be an unsurpassed text-book of bloodthirstiness, hypocrisy, treachery, perfidy and moral degeneracy — all the basest human qualities. Jewish and Christian hypocrites alike keep silent over this.

V. YA. BEGUN, Vtorzhenie bez oruzhia (Invasion Without Arms), Moscow, 1977, p. 40.

Judaism is far from the sentimentality characteristic of several religions. Neatly, and business-like, it divides all mankind into two unequal parts: the "chosen" Jews and the "despised" non-Jews.

(Some of the Jewish laws) can be compared with the fundamentals of jungle law . . .

(CAPTAIN) YU. MAKULIN, "Rabbis and Soldiers", Sovetsky voyn, No. 10, 1976.

Judaism is harmful to the Jewish believer because this belief sets him apart from other people, inculcates in him hostility towards other men and makes him oppose the world around him . . . Judaism is contrary to our communist morality, the aims of our society and the progress of modern life.

No Limit — A Post Purim Message

by Rabbi Irving Schreier

Some weeks ago I wrote letters to the Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Ambassador in Ottawa protesting the implementation of the Statute of Limitations at the end of 1979. The Statute of Limitations would in effect grant legitimacy to war criminals and would permit them to reenter society as citizens without official blemish.

I received a letter of reply from the German Embassy in which was included an official transcript of a speech delivered by Federal Chancellor Helmut Schmidt at the Cologne, Germany Synagogue on November 9, 1978. This speech was in observance of the 40th anniversary of the infamous and never to be forgotten Kristall nacht, November 9, 1938. This night marked one of the stages along the path leading to the hell of the Holocaust.

The tone of this speech is a rather conciliatory one, and touches upon basic issues of mankind and human relationships. The following is excerpted precisely without paraphrasing.

"We fervently call upon the Jews throughout the world and upon all our neighbours, not to measure our second German democracy in terms of the few muddled extremists and terrorists who, in other states as well, are impervious to reason and can hardly be prevented from emerging.

"At this point I would like to voice my gratitude to the Central Council of German Jews for always sharing, in public, our confidence in this matter. The right-wing extremists will certainly not find a home among us — nor will the left-wing extremists.

"We shall soon require the advice of our Jewish citizens in another question which will summon each of us to assume personal responsibility.

"The statute of limitations applicable to murder, after 30 years have elapsed, presents us with a momentous problem in 1979. It requires a decision in which significant moral principles are bound to clash.

"We politicians and legislators shall listen to what our Jewish citizens, our friends in Israel and our neighbours have to tell us. Each of us will pray that his conscience may guide him in finding the right action in this question."

During my recent trip to Los Angeles, California for the Rabbinical Convention I paid a visit to a friend of long-standing, Dr. Benjamin Yapko, Superintendent of the Bureau of Jewish Education of Greater Los Angeles. We had not touched bases for a number of years. As I prepared to leave his office to return to my hotel, he asked that I take the time to tour the most impressive area of the Education Bureau building. This was the Martyrs Memorial, a project of the Jewish Federation of Los Angeles.

I found the Martyrs Memorial not only impressive but soul shattering. Entering the Memorial there is an arched opening that leads to a passage consisting of four cut-away trains, with slots and plexiglass in the side walls. This passage simulates the infamous cattlecar transports of the Holocaust era. A light behind the walls illuminates the names of martyred loved ones and once-thriving communities of Europe where Jewish life has been destroyed.

From the passage we entered a crypt in the shape of a rotunda which reflects an atmosphere of solemnity and fellowship. The marble floor in this area has bronze discs 12 inches in diameter upon which are engraved the names of concentration camps.

A marble sarcophagus located above a pit symbolizes a grave. Above the sarcophagus six flickering eternal lights burn in memory of the six million.

In the rear of the crypt two arches pay homage to the Ten Commandments, the heart of the Jewish faith for which the Holocaust martyrs died. Suspended from a chrome-plated arch hangs a yellow-cornered Star of David, intertwined with rusty barbed wire.

From the crypt we entered a chapel, intended for services, lectures, or solitary contemplation. After we left these areas, we went to the Display Rooms which contained photographs, models, manuscripts, books, documents, clothing, utensils, and other articles bearing witness to the suffering of Jews in ghettos and concentration camps. It seems to me that in every detail this project has endeavored to create a mood appropriate to the solemnity of a Memorial commemorating a tragedy of unspeakable proportions.

On Shabbat, March 10, we commemorated Shabbat Zachor, the Sabbath of Remembrance. This Sabbath always occurs immediately before the holiday of Purim, to remind us of the consequences of evil and evil men. On this

Sabbath we remember Amalek, the biblical archetype of evil, the exemplar of creatures in human form who are totally devoid of pity and fundamental humanity. On Shabbat Zachor the Torah bids us "Remember what Amalek did to us, never forget."

I remind Chancellor Schmidt that there are no statutes of limitations on the deeds of Amalek; and the cries of our slaughtered brethren still are heard. Though decades have passed, our pain has not diminished. I remind the Chancellor that Exodus XVII:14 gives him sound advice: "write this for a memorial in the book and rehearse it...for the L-rd will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

B'Tween Drama

The Between Drama group for ages 11-14 is going strong. Registration for the group had to be closed since 35 members are attending the program regularly. The group is beginning to work on their production of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Parts have been cast and workshops and rehearsals are beginning.

Special events are also a big part of the program. On Tuesday, March 6, John McKay of Standard Broadcasting met with the group. Everyone had a chance to read a radio announcement on tape and had it played back. A discussion concerning radio and television announcing developed out of the program. On Tuesday, March 27, the group will be attending a TV taping at CJOH studios. At that time they will have the opportunity to see behind the scenes activity and meet with both cast and crew.

Watch the Bulletin for more news of the group and for the announcement of the play.

JSU Activities

When the typical Jewish University Student is asked his or her opinion of the Jewish Students Union, the inevitable head scratching is followed by the "who?"

It is time to explain. The Jewish Students' Union was formed in order to serve Ottawa's University aged population.

This year the J.S.U. has offered several informative programmes such as lectures by Hillel Halkin, Irving Layton and Emil Fackenheim. On the lighter side, the JSU sponsored the "Café Tel Aviv" where students and teachers from Carleton, Ottawa U. and Algonquin College campuses were invited for an informal gathering. There was an all-night Movie Extravaganza with bagel breakfast. The JSU has organized a cultural fair on the Carleton campus and an "information day" at the University of Ottawa.

In addition the group has established an office at the University of Ottawa to supplement the one already at Carleton. The final J.S.U. programme for this season will be a beer bash-dancing night at Disco Reflections.

The people who form the policies of the JSU are not an elite group. Any student or non-student who is interested in becoming more actively involved in the difficult task of catering to the needs of young Jewish adults should contact Bettina Liverant at 731-9294.

Palmach Chapter President John Dover and Kennesett President Gary Greensberg report that the Month of April will be a very busy one for their respective groups. On April 7, these groups will be hosting probably the biggest programme of the year for the Jewish Teen Community, that is of course CASINO NIGHT at the J.C.C. Two weeks later on April 15 the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization will be hosting for the first time in Ottawa an all Jewish Youth Group Floor Hockey Tournament. Teams will be entered from N.C.S.Y., U.S.Y., O.F.T.Y., DROR-HABONIM, B.B.Y.O. and the J.C.C. For more information please call any of the two presidents or call the Phys. Ed. office at the Centre.

PLAYOFF HOCKEY: Any B'nai B'rith Youth who would like to go down to Montreal and see some Playoff action please call the B.B.Y.O. office at 523-5388. There are only 15 available seats on a first come first serve basis.

B'nai B'rith Youth Organization plans to take part in this year's annual WALK-A-THON to be held on May 27. We challenge all other Youth Groups to come out and be counted in this very important program for Israel. All B.B.Y.O.ers who wish to make up our large contingent this year please contact our Walk-a-Thon chairpersons, Gary Greenberg or Sharon Diener as soon as possible.

There will be a group of B.B.Y.O. members arriving in Ottawa from Toronto on April 6 and April 20. Any Ottawa members who could help billet one of these people for a couple of days please call Howie Osterer at 523-5388.

We are still looking for interested groups who wish to participate with our members in any type of physical activity. Our boys have performed well against Parliament Lodge in Basketball; our girls are still waiting to play some group in Volleyball, Floor Hockey or Basketball. Please call Penny Torontow at 523-5388 if your group is interested in a fun evening.

JCC Sponsors Mini Health Fair

The Jewish Community Centre's Physical Education Department will be offering a mini Health Fair, in conjunction with the Cancer Society, the Heart Association, and the Lung Foundation.

The program will take place in the Social and Assembly Halls on Sunday, April 8, 1979, between 1:00 and 4:00 p.m.

Each association will be giving a one-hour presentation. Included in this presentation will be movies, slides, a lecture and pamphlets.

As an added attraction, Fitness Ontario will be checking blood pressure, body fat and giving a variety of other tests. Place: Main corridor.

For those only interested in coming to one portion of the program, the Heart Association will present their program at 1:00 p.m.; the Cancer Society at 2:00 p.m.; and the Lung Foundation at 3:00 p.m.

Health is everyone's concern. Come and learn how to prevent health problems from occurring.

K'Ton Ton Spring Preschool

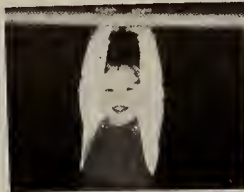

After a very successful fall and winter programs, the Jewish Community Centre Physical Education Department is offering a spring K'ton Ton and Bitty Gym program. This program aims at stimulating the child's interest in and appreciation of his/her Jewish heritage through constructive, meaningful play.

Jackie Kaufman-Ludwick leads the children between the ages of 2 and 3 1/2 in a variety of classroom experiences.

The program starts March 29, 9:15 a.m., Arts and Crafts Room. Ends June 7.

Bitty Gym

Judy Hird ably assists Jackie and supervises the Bitty Gym program.

The Gym program is designed to introduce the child to the various gym equipment and to help him or her in motor development. Trampoline, ladders, ropes, balls, hoops and many other devices are used to make it a fun place for mother and child to develop.

Starts March 29, 10:30 a.m. Ends June 7.

Mother's Fitness Class

The program is also designed to facilitate the use of Centre facilities by women. A fitness class is given while the children are in the program. Babysitting is available for toddlers under two.

The program is held on Tuesdays and Thursdays, starts March 29, 1979 and runs for 10 weeks. For more information regarding registration call Louise Cloutier or Ron Boro at the Centre, 232-7306.

Eliahu Navi to Speak

On Sunday, April 1, 1979, at 8:00 p.m. in the Assembly Hall, the Pioneer Women Na'amat of Ottawa and the Jewish Community Centre will cosponsor a talk by the Mayor of Beer-Sheva, Eliahu Navi.

Mr. Navi was born in Iraq in 1920 and has been an Israeli resident since 1926. He received his LLB from Tel Aviv University in 1947. After serving in the Israeli Defence Forces from 1948 to 1954, he practiced law and was appointed Judge of the Court of Beer-Sheva in 1957. He has been Mayor of Beer-Sheva since 1963. Among his present current public posts, he is a member of the Board of Directors of Ben-Gurion University, Hebrew University and ORT. Mr. Navi has written and lectured on Arab-Israeli relations, specializing in Arabic education and communications. He has also written and published a selection of Arab folk stories.

Well-known for his entertaining style of speaking, Mr. Navi will be here in Ottawa as part of a cross-country tour sponsored by the Pioneer Women of Canada.

Set Up Technion Fund

Sam and Rachel Nadolny, with family and friends, recently established the Dr. Barry Nadolny Perpetual Scholarship Fund at Technion-Israel School of Medicine in memory of their dear son and brother.

Dr. Barry Nadolny was born in Ottawa in August, 1949. In 1970 he entered Medicine at the University of Ottawa and graduated with honors. While there, he won the John Burke and Aesculapian Society prize for Highest Standing in Surgery. After graduation, Barry interned at the Montreal General Hospital followed by a year of residency in internal medicine. He passed his Fellowship examinations at the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1975, then took a sabbatical to travel throughout south-east Asia. It was there that he tragically took ill and died in March 1976.

This scholarship fund in Dr. Nadolny's name will provide support for eligible applicants to the Technion-Israel Institute of Technology who lack the financial resources. Upon graduation, they will join the thousands of Technion-educated engineers, technologists, scientists, physicians and managers who are the key to Israel's continued progress. The need for such funds is an increasingly urgent concern at the Institute.

For further information on this student aid program or others, contact the following offices of the Canadian Technion Society: National Office and Montreal Chapter, 2085 Union Ave., No. 1590, Montreal, Que. H3A 2C3 — Tel. (514) 288-0682 or (514) 844-3601 (Women's Division).

Guest Speaker Hillel Academy Celebrations

Rabbi Yaacov Kaploun, director of education, has announced that Susan Margles, Grade 7 student at Hillel Academy, is the winner of the school's Trilingual Oratory Contest. Miss Margles will be the guest speaker at the 30th anniversary celebrations on April 3.

For further information on the anniversary dinner, consult the invitation on this page.

Hubert Humphrey To Be Guest of Hadassah-WIZO

The annual Ottawa Hadassah-WIZO Medical Services Luncheon will take place on Tuesday, April 3, at 12:15 p.m. in the Ballroom of the Chateau Laurier Hotel.

Ottawa Hadassah is the first centre in Canada to direct its campaign commitment to the new Ear, Nose and Throat building of the Asaf Harofe Hospital at Sarafan, Israel.

By now, every Jewish household in the Jewish community will have received invitations to the Luncheon, with the list of specific gifts available to either honour or memorialize someone. Or, one may attend as a donor if that is his or her wish.

The members of Hadassah-WIZO feel honored to have as their guest speaker Hubert H. Humphrey, III, Minnesota State Senator and son of the late United States Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. Mr. Humphrey has just returned from a trip to Israel.

To arrange for tickets and reservations, contact Roz Tabachnik at 828-9817.

Art Auction on April 28

Negev Chapter of Hadassah-WIZO is holding an Art Auction on Saturday, April 28, at the Agudath Israel Synagogue.

Once again, Marlin Art Incorporated from New York will be auctioning the sculptures and framed paintings.

Previews will begin at 8:30 p.m. with the auction starting at 9:00. The price of admission is $1.00, and this will include refreshments.

All proceeds of this event will go to one of the many Hadassah-WIZO projects in Israel.

Any inquiries or questions can be made to the chairperson, Marcia Black, 828-6083.

Machzikei Hadas Seder

The Annual Seder for the first night of Passover, Wednesday, April 11, will be held at the Machzikei Hadas shul in the Main Auditorium at 2310 Virginia Drive. Participants will enjoy a complete, traditional Seder and meal in the spirit of Passover.

The cost is $16 per adult, $8 per child ten years of age or younger. Reserve by calling the shul office (521-9700) as soon as possible.

Scholarship As Memorial

A scholarship fund to perpetuate the name of Rae Soloway, of blessed memory, has been established by the Mizrahi Women's Organization of Ottawa. The funds will be directed to the Givat Mordechai Day Care Centre in Jerusalem.

Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Sol Sherman, 1397 Lepage Avenue, Ottawa K1Z 8M8.

Head of Peace Project

On Monday, March 26, 8:00 p.m. Rabbi Bruce Cohen, founder of Interns for Peace, will be honored at Temple Israel. The Ami Hai dance troupe will perform, and Middle Eastern foods will be served. All are welcome. There is no charge.

Originally called "Project 5737" — Interns for Peace was launched as a result of the "Land Day" riots in March, 1976, which had both shocked Rabbi Cohen and made him acutely aware of the need for closing the gap between the Arab and Jewish populations.

The first group of "Interns", twelve North Americans including one Torontonians, have been in Israel since October, 1978.

During the first year of their work in the Arab villages the volunteers have started programmes with neighbouring Jewish villages, kibbutzim and development townships, both to benefit them and bring them together with the Arab population.

TV Taping

CJOH-TV's program QUEST hosted monthly by Rabbi Reuven P. Bulka announces a taping session on Monday, April 2 at 1:00 p.m. sharp. The shows will be taped at 1:30 p.m., 2:15 p.m., and 3:15 p.m. They will feature Prof. Howard Stanislawski on "The Arab Boycott and An Overview of the Middle East Situation," Dr. Arthur Leonoff on "Cults Revisited," and Dr. Norman Barwin on "Fertility and Other Problems Relating to Procreation."

Tickets may be obtained by calling 521-9700. Taping takes place at CJOH-TV on Merivale Road.

Former Mayor

Lorry Greenberg will be guest speaker at an installation luncheon meeting of B'nai B'rith Women, Ottawa Chapter 421, on April 4. Fran Greenblatt will install Dora Eisenberger as incoming President.

Guests are welcome. R.S.V.P. before April 1 to Vera Gara, 722-6422.

Matzoh Fund

At this time of year and with the approach of Passover, it has been the custom over the years for the Jewish Aid Society of Ottawa to seek assistance for those less fortunate in the Ottawa Jewish Community, by contributing to the Mo'oss Chittim (Matzoh Fund). A portion of the Fund is transferred to the Canadian Jewish Congress, which administers the distribution in Israel.

Contributions will be deeply appreciated, to assist those in need of help during Passover.
